Workshops for the Professional In Health & Human Services

Addressing Elder Abuse and Neglect

Discovering, investigating and eliminating elder abuse and neglect are the focus of this one-day workshop for health care professionals. Participants will receive up-to-date information about the topic and learn how to make hard but important decisions. 6 CEUs for long term care administrators, counselors and social workers. Instructor: Pat Schneider, RN, BA, NHA

CEHHS-633-01 Fri. Apr. 18, 2008 9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Northeast Campus $110

Professional Boundaries...Have You Exceeded Yours?

We are all faced with personal boundaries violations or near-misses in our day-to-day lives; however, we often do not consider the professional boundaries that we may violate in the workplace. This workshop will focus on the principles that we need to observe in the workplace. 6 CEUs for long term care administrators, counselors and social workers. Instructor: Martha Bursinger, RN, MSN, M.Ed.

CEHHS-635-01 Fri. May 9, 2008 9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Harbison Campus $110

May 19th CE Marathon Day

Social Workers and the CVA Client – Part 1 of marathon

A cerebral vascular accident causes significant cognitive and physical changes that patients and their families must cope with. This workshop will help health and human services professionals to understand these changes and recognize the role the professional can play. A box lunch is served at 12:30. 5 CEUs for social workers, counselors and long term care administrators. Instructor: Rafe Ellisor, LMSW

CEHHS-634-01 Mon. May 19, 2008 7:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. Northeast Campus $99

Promoting Resilience – Part 2 of marathon

Some clients seem to thrive while others wither. This interactive workshop includes research on resilience and how to apply these lessons to clients and to our own practice. The session will promote greater self awareness and offer tools to participants to cultivate resilience in their clients and in their own lives and work. 5 CEUs for long term care administrators, counselors and social workers. Lunch is not included for those participants only attending this session. Instructor: Sarah Meadows, LSW, LISW-AP

CEHHS-636-01 Mon. May 19, 2008 1:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. Northeast Campus $90
