

Costa Rica

Enroll in a nine-day, Spanish-language immersion program, and explore beautiful Costa Rica

Immerse yourself in the Spanish language and culture as you explore Costa Rica guided by its native daughter, Gabriela Lopez Teeple. Study Spanish in five, four-hour daily individualized language classes (six or fewer students per class).

Then absorb the culture as you enjoy tours to Isla Tortuga, Turubari, Arenal Volcano and Baldi Hot Springs, Caffe Britt, US Embassy, Gold Museum, National Theater, Orosi Valley and Basilical of Los Angeles in Cartago as well as a host of other surprises.

This total immersion program features accommodations in selected homes, 20+ meals, and includes all transportation and tours. Classes, tours, lodging and lots of food – all for $1499 plus airfare. Hotel lodging at an additional cost is also available. A $200 deposit is required by May 1 for the $1499 tuition. After May 1, $1599.

June 18-26, 2010

Cost: $1499 before May 1; $1599 after May 1 (plus airfare)

Call (803) 732-5256 for more information or (803) 732-0432 to register. All participants will be awarded Continuing Education credit.

