What equipment do I need to bring to class?

The same equipment is needed for the riding sessions in all three-class levels. DOT approved full or open-face helmet (half-helmets are prohibited); eye protection; full-fingered gloves; long sleeves; long pants; and footwear that covers the ankles. For classroom sessions, students should have a pen or pencil and a notepad. Please note that this is equipment is required for the first riding session.

When is the riding equipment required?

All classes - Riding equipment is not needed for the Friday evening classroom sessions. It is required for all riding sessions on Saturday or Sunday. NOTE: Weekday classes do ride on the first day which is Tuesday.

Do I need to bring a motorcycle to class?

BC - Students do not need to bring a motorcycle to class. Training motorcycles are provided.

IC and EC - Students must provide a street legal, insured, and fully registered motorcycle. The motorcycle will be inspected prior to class and must meet minimum safety requirements to be used in the class.

Can I ride another person's motorcycle in the IC or EC?

IC and EC - A borrowed motorcycle may be used but the student must have written, notarized permission from the owner, and produce the registration form and proof of insurance.

Do I need a license to take the class?

BC - No license is needed. Students must meet the eligibility standards required to apply for a license to ride on the street. Permit is required for license waiver.

IC - Students must have a motorcycle learners permit (for a minimum of 60 days) OR a valid motorcycle license.

EC - Students must have a valid motorcycle license OR a motorcycle learners permit (for a minimum of 60 days). Learner's Permit operators must provide proof of successful completion of a previous motorcycle class.

Will I get an insurance discount if I take a motorcycle rider class?

The law in SC is that insurance companies may give a discount for persons completing a rider education class. Students who successfully complete any of the three classes are eligible for the insurance discount.

Will I earn a waiver for the state DMV motorcycle road test by successfully completing a class?

Students with a valid South Carolina Learner's Permit who successfully pass the SC DMV motorcycle license road test during a BC, IC or EC are eligible for a road test waiver.

Can a passenger take the class with me?

Passengers are permitted in the EC only. Both the rider and passenger must be fully registered students. Passengers must be able to place their feet on the motorcycle's foot pegs. The rider carrying a passenger MUST have a full motorcycle license, learner's permit holders are not authorized to have passengers.

I work Friday evening. Can I just skip the Friday evening session and start the class when it resumes on Saturday morning?

Students must attend all scheduled sessions of the class for successful course completion. Active riding is not permitted once any portion of the class has been missed.

How can I get some additional information before taking the class?
